1. General

This Online Services Consumer Internet Agreement ("Agreement") for accessing your Holiday Financial Services account(s) via the Internet explains the terms and conditions governing Holiday Financial Services and other financial services offered through Holiday Financial Services (collectively, "Online Services"). By using Online Services you agree to abide by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. This Agreement is governed by and interpreted in accordance with federal law and regulation, and to the extent there is no applicable federal law or regulation, by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The words "our," "we," "us," "Holiday Financial," and "Holiday Financial Services" refer to Holiday Financial Services. The words "you," "your," and "yours" means each person in whose name the loan account with Holiday Financial Services is maintained.

Online Services can be used to access products and accounts made available by Holiday Financial Services. By using as described below, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement. When you use any of our Online Services, as described below, or authorize others to use them, you and any such users agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Online Services transactions are additionally governed by any other separate agreement(s) you may have with Holiday Financial Services, including but not limited to, your loan agreement and any security agreements (your "Loan Documents").

Online Services is a consumer electronic financial service provided by Holiday Financial Services. You must have a Holiday Financial Services loan account to access the Online Services service. You may access Online Services using a personal computer with access to Holiday Financial Services' website on the Internet.

Online Services provided by Holiday Financial Services include the ability for you to access your loan account histories, make loan payments, and review your monthly statement electronically (your "E-Statement"). These are referred to as "Online Services."

2. Your Authorization

If you do not agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, you may not complete the registration process. Checking the box entitled, "I have reviewed and agree to the terms and conditions contained in the Consumer Internet Agreement." and proceeding to use the Online Services indicates your acknowledgement that you have read and accepted these terms and conditions.

By making payments on your Holiday Financial Services loan account through Online Services, you are authorizing Holiday Financial Services to electronically charge your checking or savings account for the amount you submitted. If you want to use this method of payment, you must complete this authorization process each time. You will receive an email notification each month stating that your loan statement is available for online viewing and payment. You are not required by Holiday Financial Services to authorize Holiday Financial Services to make electronic charges to your checking or savings account as your method of payment. You may continue to make payments on your loan account through any other method acceptable to Holiday Financial Services.

If you wish to revoke your consent to monthly electronic loan statements, please contact customer service.
